

Pastor Gary Reimers

After obtaining a Ph.D. in theology in 1983, Dr. Gary Reimers and his wife, Jan, moved to Dover, New Hampshire to plant Heritage Baptist Church. After fifteen years of effective ministry at Heritage, the Lord then burdened Dr. Reimers with the need to help prepare young men for the ministry. He returned to Bob Jones University with his wife and three children in the fall of 1998 to teach in the seminary.

In January 2002 he directed the planting of Cornerstone Baptist Church in Greenville, South Carolina and became the founding pastor.

He has written several articles for Christian magazines and has traveled across the globe to teach and preach, as well as lead study tours to the Holy Land. Pastor Reimers has written a book on worship entitled, The Glory Due His Name.

Theme Verses

John 16:7-8—“But I am telling you the truth, that it is to your advantage that I go away, for if I do not go away, the Helper will not come to you; but if I go, I will send Him to you.

And He, when He comes, will convict the world concerning sin and righteousness and judgment.”

The Topic

In our pursuit of Christ, we all need guidance from the Word on difficult topics.

Many believers wonder what the role of the Holy Spirit is in his or her life. Confusion abounds on issues such as:

- Can we receive new revelation?
- Should we try to speak in tongues?
- Do we have apostles now?
- What is the Holy Spirit’s role in the church today?

Dr. Reimers has thoroughly studied these issues. His insights will assist every believer as he or she thinks through what the Bible has to say. Since the Bible is our authority, its teaching will be preeminent all week-end.

I hope you’ll make plans to join us (and invite some friends) for our Fall Conference. Your faith will be bolstered by the Bible’s wisdom.
